LARGEST BLOODSTOCK IMPORTATION

Captain Iddington of Thane, Oxfordshire, England, has made his third shipment of thoroughbred stallions, brood mares, horses in training, yearlings and foals to Canada. There are twenty-five head in the shipment, all of them bred in the purple. They are destined to various Canadian points, including Montreal, Ottawa, Winnipeg, and Calgary, and will prove of inestimable benefit to the light-horse breeding industry of the Dominion. Among the better known horses are By George whom dam, Queen's Holiday, is the granddam of Light Dragon, the winner of the Clearwater. By George, sire Tully, has won $71,948, including the Champagne Stakes. He is the sire of 22 individual winners on the flat alone, and with all his winning progeny has a grand total of 104 races, representing the value of $79,365. Marcus, winner of the New Coventry Stakes, is the son of Cicero, Lord Rosebery's good winner in England and France, Derby winner, and carried in his veins the blood of Bend or St. Simon, the sire of 200 winners. Also included are Kooling, a chestnut mare, whose daughter, Red House, sold for $4,500; Little Bird, in foal to Blue, which, as now of The Tetrarch, and which sold for $72,500 as a yearling; Green Book, by Book, which was a good winner in England and France; and Princess Mine, in foal to Thrush, winner of $28,500, with a record at one and a quarter miles which has never been surpassed for speed.

SPORT

SUCCESSFUL BOXING BOUT HELD AT MEMORIAL HALL

The boxing bout, which was presented at the Memorial Hall last week, was the first held in Strathmore for several years. It brought to town people from all the surrounding centers, and quite a few of the little fans from Calgary, Bassano, and Brooks and among the most interested and enthusiastic spectators were a number of lady fans.

The sport presented was excellent and perfect order maintained. A few people failed to observe the rules that smoking was not permitted. First, it is a rule of the house, and secondly it is absolutely unfair to the contest. However, when the referee, the voice of Constable Tate was heard making positive statement that failure to observe the rules would be followed by removal, there was no further breaches.

The opening announcement was made by Mr. John Mackenzie, in which he appealed for fair treatment for contestants, which was remarkably well observed.

The opening battle was a three-round contest between "Battam" Gray and "Roughhouse" Hollinger, and resulted in a draw. "Battam" was the smaller, but was willing to mix things generally, while Hollinger was much more cautious. The bout was very interesting.

The second event was between "Lightning" Kennedy and "Win" Moran. Moran is the heavier and Kennedy faster and slightly more skilled. The boys mixed things and gave an excellent exhibition of good footwork and skillful boxing.

These boys, under experienced training would develop into very promising contestants.

The next attraction was four rounds between Dren and Jacobson. In the first round Dren had Jacobson "down" but failed to take advantage, and the gang saved Jacobson. Jacobson was in much better physical condition and quickly recovered.

These boys mixed things in lively fashion, and put on a very fast and aggressive contest. In the fourth round Jacobson landed very strong blows, leaving the more bludge when the gong sounded, and the referee gave the decision to Jacobson, which met with the approval of the audience.

George Thirweather, 125 pounds, and Frank Malar, 125 pounds, were the two boys to put on the semi-final contest, and gave a very clever exhibition, but for lightweights did an unnecessary amount of clinching, which does not appeal to the fans.

However, these boys are very keen rivals, and were not disposed to take any chances. The referee gave the decision as a draw, and so these two youngsters will have to lineup again to decide who is to meet Young Cowie, of Calgary.

The main bout of the evening was between Tommy Rogers, former welterweight champion of Alberta and Basil Daines, who was victorious in putting Rogers in the bad in order that he could get after Alex Wilson, the present Alberta champion.

The referee gave his decision as a draw, to which a few objected, many thinking that Daines had scored the most points, he having been the most aggressive, but it must not be forgotten that Rogers was much more crafty and had scored a number of points which were only visible to the referee at close range. It was generally admitted that in a longer contest that Daines would win. If he had been as aggressive in the earlier rounds as he was at the finish, it is very probable that he might have copied the honors in this bout.

Rogers was either over trained or over anxious, as he appeared very much worried all through the contest. Daines is a splendid looking boy, well set up, has all kinds of nerve, and is willing to mix things generally. If he takes care of himself and is well handled, he will make some of the good ones step lively to retain their honors. He was quite a favorite with the fans, especially the ladies.

J. F. Ross of Brooks was the referee and handled everything in the style.

To James Gunn special thanks for the fight fans should be expressed for putting on such a clean and well conducted event. There are a number of people who like the boxing game, and will support it when properly managed, and it is very gratifying to learn that the performance returned a small profit and also ensures a larger audience for the next contest when put on by the same management.

WEDDING

MITCHELL—SCHEER

The marriage took place on April 18th, of Miss Samuella Scheer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Scheer, formerly of Strathmore, to Mr. Edward Mitchell, eldest son of Captain and Mrs. Mitchell, of Los Angeles, Calif., at the home of the bride's aunt, Miss L. C. Scheer, President of the Y. M. C. A. The young couple are spending their honeymoon on a two weeks tour of the southern States, after which they will make their home in Los Angeles, where the bridegroom is in business.

GOLF

The official opening of the course will be on May 2nd, when teams captained by the President and Vice-President will play. The draw for this match will be posted at Thos. E. Wright's store on Friday, and the players concerned are requested to arrange with opponents as to hour of game. Games can be played at any time but preferably in the early afternoon. Score cards can be had at Mr. Wright's store, and each player is requested to turn in a properly marked card, showing his score and sliced by his opponent. Cards can be handed to Mr. Wright, Mr. Van Thienen, Mr. Dunn, Mr. Stockton, Mr. Ridley, Mr. Patrick, or Mr. Whitelock.

Players after having holed out on number 3 green and returning to number 1 tee are requested to keep clear of number 1 fairway if there are any players on or about number 1 tee.

Players are requested to mark any new gopher holes by placing therein a stick of sufficient length as to make the location conspicuous.

Members are requested to refrain from leaving or scattering any papers, orange peelings, etc., on or about the grounds, and to do what is possible to protect the young trees recently planted.

All players are again requested to mark the greens after they have holed out. If every player does this task, the maintenance of the course will be a joy and satisfaction to every player to know that a perfect approach to the green will not be penalized by a rough or ill kept green.

The Chairman of the Green Committee will welcome any suggestions or constructive criticism relative to the betterment of the course as whole or any one fairway or green in particular.

When you have holed out please leave the mats or rakes at the side of the green opposite to the approach side.

All members are expected to help keep the course in the best possible shape.

It would be genuine courtesy if the older or more experienced players would help the beginners, teaching them the rudiments of the game, how to hold the clubs, the uses of the various clubs, golf etiquette, welfare of the course, etc.

LADIES' GOLF CLUB

Owing to the early arrival of wintry weather last fall, 1925, several matches and competitions scheduled for the Ladies' Golf Club were, of necessity, indefinitely postponed, although the necessary prizes had been purchased. One of these a putting competition was played off last Saturday, April 24th; the prize, a handsome silver tea-spoon with club crest, going to Mrs. Patrick.

Another postponed game will be played on Saturday next, in the form of a one-club competition, 9 holes. All ladies who were club members in good standing last season, are eligible to enter this competition without expense. Two prizes, golf brooches, are to be awarded, one in each flight.

The score cards, as usual, will be found at the Strathmore Hardware Co.'s store, and must be signed and dropped in the box at the links immediately after the game.

The draw is as follows, any time after 2:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon: Miss Watson with Mrs. Whitelock, Mrs. Van Thienen with Mrs. Williams, Mrs. Patrick with Miss Kynett, Mrs. Ridley with Mrs. Wright, Mrs. Chamberlain with Miss Brown, Mrs. Lydell with Miss Gibson, Mrs. Stockton with Mrs. Peterson, Mrs. Hirtle with Mrs. Gardiner, Miss Borth with Miss Garrett.

CHARGED WITH SLAYING OSTRICH WHILE DRUNK

Irishman Wins Out in Fight With Bird on 1 to 25 Chance

BOSTON, April 27.—Up in court for the murder of an ostrich, Win. McIntyre felt uneasy when he was informed that in his struggle with the ostrich bird he had only one chance in twenty-five of victory.

McIntyre, describing how he fell foul of "Governor" in Franklin park, admitted that he was slightly intoxicated. He was about to retire for the night in the camel house when he was felicitated with a terrific blow on the chest. Being Irish, McIntyre rose and went down for the count of two. On his second recovery of his legs the man reached out and took hold of something "long and skinny" the neck of an eight foot ostrich that weighed two hundred pounds. Completely in the dark as to the identity of his assailant, startled by a rain of blows and tossed from one side of the arena to the other by the ferocious bird, McIntyre clung to the "long skinny thing" as if a drowning man clings to a straw.

How long the battle raged he did not know, but as soon as he felt the neck grow limp in his hands he judged on the murder charge, which was added "crucially to animals" was waived.

HOTELKEEPERS TO ASK TO SELL BEER BY GLASS

Saskatchewan Assoc. Either Wants That or No Drinking on Premises

SASKATOON, April 27.—The privilege of selling beer by the glass, so that the hotelkeepers may exercise control over drinking in their establishments on one downtown room in the hotels, or in the alternative, the prohibition of drinking in hotels, may be asked by the executive of the Saskatchewan Hotelkeepers' association when the provincial legislature again convenes.

This was the statement issued to the press following a general annual meeting of the association here Wednesday night.

While no definite decision on the sale of beer by the glass took place at the meeting, it was the general feeling of the gathering that "it was not fair for the government to sell liquor and allow people to bring it into the rooms of our hotels to drink" according to Arthur Mason, of Saskatoon, newly-elected president of the association, who gave the statement to the press.

CHURCH NOTES

The last meeting of the Official Board of the local United Church for the year 1925-26 on Friday evening, April 23rd, was a profitable meeting, but there was no attendance of about twenty-five. Reports from the various societies of the three congregations were most favorable, showing increases in membership, and in the finances, which just in full the amount asked for the benevolences of the church. The official members present were as follows: From Namaka, the Session, Mrs. Aikens and Mr. Wooster; Stewards, Mr. Thomson and Mr. McLean; S. S. Supt., Mrs. Wooster; and President of the Ladies' Aid, Mrs. E. C. Watts; From Chasid, Mr. McKee, of the Session; Mr. Laycraft, Mr. Field and Mr. Kent; From Strathmore, Mr. Fisher and Mr. Glendinning of the Session; Mr. Jones and Mr. Shrimpton of the Stewards; Mrs. Brown and Miss Supt. of the Ladies' Aid, and Mr. W. B. Gardner, Supt. of the S. S. The minister occupied the chair, and when the business had been dealt with harmoniously, the Chasid ladies served most attractive and delicious refreshments. It was decided to have the next regular meeting on the first Thursday of June in Namaka. The Strathmore United Church, which

Nifty Oil Bubble Dance

The Oil Bubble Dance given at the Memorial Hall on Monday night by Wheaton Lodge, Knights of Pythias, was well attended and the crowd enjoyed themselves to the limit. The orchestra, consisting of five pieces, furnished the music.

The feature of the dance was the drawing for three lucky prizes, in oil shares. R. Davis won the first prize (ten shares of Urban Oil Stock). C. Harper won second prize, (Five shares of Highland Oil Stock), and Miss Lawrence won the third prize, another lot of (Five shares Highland). The booty prize, a highly colored and artistically arranged certificate for 10 shares in "Kastor Oil" was won by Lars Omberg, but he failed to hand his number to the judges and so forfeited the prize to Head Driller Tom Branston.

The Oil Bubble dance, being something new, caused considerable comment and the committee who arranged the details and thought out the plan are to be congratulated. Every dance in it all were named after some famous Oil Well, such as for example, "Vulcan Fox Trot," "Royalty Waltz," etc. The "Black Diamond Waltz" proved to be a moonlight waltz, and the "Home Waltz" was the closing number.

This is another case where the law received a different interpretation than that given by Constable Tate. Surely there should be an explanation coming from headquarters.

completes the congregation of Namaka, Chasid, and Strathmore, has enjoyed the most successful year of the history of the churches which have united to compose it.

ROCKYFORD UNITED CHURCH NOTES

We are glad to know that our choir is once more coming together, and under the able leadership of Mr. C. R. Walrod. The musical part of the worship of the church will be better and more worshipful. ROCKYFORD

Rev. Father H. A. Bolz secured a decided triumph at Calgary recently when he appeared before the Women's Musical Club. Among the numbers he presented a new version of Schubert's "Serenade," composed by himself, which was a delight to the large and enthusiastic audience. He remained in the room of the Palliser Hotel.

It is with much regret that we have to report the death of Mr. G. Sangster on Thursday evening at 8:30, of heart failure, at the age of 72. Mr. Sangster will be greatly missed in the district, where he has resided for the past seven years; the greater part of his time in Canada, for he came here from Scotland thirteen years ago, and was a native of Aberdeen. Retaining to the end the personality and fine qualities of his countrymen, Mr. Sangster was a well known and much respected member of the community, among whom many were his friends. The sincere sympathy is felt for Mrs. Sangster, who survives her husband, in her great loss, and for their six sons, Alex and Arthur, of Rockyford, Jack and Claud, of Rosedale, Tim, of Vancouver, and George, a resident of Ocean Falls, B. C., also for their daughters, Mrs. Williams, of Rockyford, Jean, who is living in Calgary, and a third daughter in Scotland. The funeral took place at Rockyford on Sunday, the service being conducted by the Rev. C. E. Rogers, at the United Church. This was one of the most impressive ceremonies ever held in Rockyford, the numbers attending being far too great for the accommodation of the church, and more than half being unable to gain admittance, stood outside during the service, which was very moving in its simplicity. The hymns were beautifully rendered by the choir, and the Rev. C. E. Rogers' appeal to his hearers in a most eloquent address, which will be remembered for many a day by those privileged to hear him. Interment took place immediately after the service in the Rockyford Cemetery, over three hundred cars following in the procession, and the countless beautiful wreaths testified to the esteem in which Mr. Sangster was held by all who knew him. The funeral arrangements were most efficiently carried out by Porter and Foster, of Calgary.

The splendid weather of the past few weeks has been taken full advantage of by the farmers, and indeed the greater part of the wheat crop is ready. There is plenty of moisture to start the crop, thanks to the wet weather which we all caused so heartily last fall, when it so heartily thrashed operations.

Mrs. Ambrose Wise tells us that there will be another sale of Angel food cakes in the Poole Hardware Store next Saturday. Those who were too late to get one of these most delectable cakes at the last sale, must come early this time. The sale will be under the auspices of the Rockyford Ladies Aid.

Mr. Ambrose Wise proposes making a golf course and a swimming pool on his place this summer. Those who have ever seen his beautiful home on the Rosedale will admit that it would be hard to find a more ideal spot for the purpose.

We were very glad to see Mrs. T. C. Short out again after the very severe attack of flu she has had.

Dr. Denovan was ready to Danl for three days last week, and reports feeling a hundred percent better for the change.

We are sorry to learn that Mr. Garner is unwell, having had a finger amputated in Calgary last week.

The C.P.R. are fixing the grades on their bridges and culverts in the district this week.

CRAIGANTLER

Seeding was general during last week, and about thirty percent of the wheat is seeded at the time of writing.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Davitt were surprised by a number of friends one night last week. The young couple having just moved into their new house on section 32-24-25. The company were entertained by George Green and Bill Morison, both keeping the company in good humour by telling stories about their courting days long ago. The time was enjoyed by all, and on leaving wished Mr. and Mrs. Davitt many happy days in their new home.

Mrs. H. Dankwerth is progressing favourably after being operated on for appendicitis in the Holy Cross Hospital, Calgary.

PLANT A TREE

What do we plant when we plant the tree?

We plant the ship that will cross the sea;

We plant the mast to carry the sails;

We plant the plank to withstand the gales;

The keel, the keelson, the beam and knee;

We plant the ship when we plant the tree.

What do we plant when we plant the tree?

We plant the house for you and me;

We plant the rafters, the shingle, the floor;

We plant the studing, the lath, the doors,

The trim and siding, all parts that be;

We plant the house when we plant the tree.

What do we plant when we plant the tree?

A thousand things we daily see.

We plant the spire that out-towers the cross;

We plant the staff for our country's flag;

We plant the shade from the hot sun free;

We plant all these when we plant the tree.

BATTLE SCARRED HERO

(Kinderley Clarion)

One of the difficulties that beset even the best-intentioned journalists is told by one of that profession who decided to establish a newspaper in a "one horse" town, and was informed that a certain gallant colonel must at all costs be propitiated. His first number therefore contained a long article full of praise of the colonel's achievements but unfortunately the head line, which should have read "Our Battle Scared Hero," appeared as "Our Bottle Scared Hero," and an hour later the colonel, who liked his glass, was round looking for the editor with a shot gun. An explanation was with difficulty effected, and an apology and correction promised. Unfortunately the compositor again slipped, and the apology explained that "Bottle Scared Hero" should have read "Battle Scared Hero." When the enterprising journalist saw his paper, he wisely sought the railroad depot and moved on.

THE ALLIANCE STRENGTHENED

The Edmonton Journal in commenting upon the West Midland by-election last week, says:

It was predicted in some quarters that, despite the close relationship which has developed between the representatives in Parliament of that movement and the administration it would be shown by this by-election that the average Progressive voter did not approve of the developments at Ottawa. But this prediction has not been verified, for the alliance on the basis of which the business of the country is now being carried on, will undoubtedly be strengthened by the West Midland election.

A meeting was held on Tuesday for the purpose of organizing a separate school district for Rockyford, and out of a possible 21, twenty-five votes were cast in favor. The following were nominated as candidates for school trustees: P. E. Ryan, George Kennedy, E. R. Ridd, J. A. Cough and Mr. J. B. McGuire and the first three elected. Application will now be made to the Department of Education to arrange the district.

Seeding is in full swing now. Some of the farmers have completed seeding their wheat. Very little stubble is being mown, in grain this year, and land is in fine condition to give the seed a splendid chance for quick growth.

A joint birthday party took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. E. McLeod last Tuesday, April 20th, when Miss Florence Messenger and Master Audley McLeod celebrated their birthday. Twenty-five guests were present, and after an hour or more of games and contests they made short work of ice cream, lemonade, two big birthday cakes, and other dainties.

Tennis was started in earnest last week and this week a new idea has been put into effect. Partners were chosen for the players, and a tennis ladder was formed, each rung consisting of two players, whose place on the ladder was chosen by lot. The runners are privileged to challenge the runs immediately above them, and if the challenging rung wins, they move up on the ladder. It was induced each member to come out on the courts, and so far it has been a success and added more interest to the game. The points around the tennis court are receiving a new coat of paint, and an old fashioned stone now furnishes the entrance to the park grounds.

A delightful bridge party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Lait, when Mrs. Lait and Mrs. Milne entertained their friends on Friday evening. There were five tables of players, and when the scores were counted at the end of the playing, it was found that Mrs. E. A. Wagner and Mr. Magnus Neilson had carried off the honors. The guests were invited to the dining room where small tables were arranged. The tables were beautifully decorated with artificial flower pots, each containing dainty crepe paper roses, candy and names made lovely place cards and favors. After delicious refreshments, the guests chatted for an hour, and then departed homeward in the wee small hours.

FRENCH DELEGATES MAKE PEACE OFFER TO REBEL TRIBES

Meeting is Preliminary to General Conference at Oudja

OUJDA, Morocco, April 27.—General Simon, head of the French peace delegation, had his first important conference with a delegation of Rif tribes today. He was met by Abd el Krim, Mohammed Achachane, Abd el Krim's brother-in-law, at Oudja, General Simon returned to Oudja last night. Although no official announcement has been made regarding the discussion, it is believed two vital points remain to be decided before the official opening of the conference with a view to peace with the rebellious tribesmen. The first is that the French must agree to fill in the desert with the Rif tribes, and the second is that the Rif tribes be presented, being unwilling to accept Abd el Krim as spokesman for the entire Rif. This necessitates some delay.

The second step on the ultimatum that Krim demand from Morocco and the Rif is that the Rif tribes be presented, being unwilling to accept Abd el Krim as spokesman for the entire Rif. This necessitates some delay.

A. B. CLAYPOOL IS

SURE NOMINATION

Acme Plans Farmer-Labor Convention

DOWNHILL, April 27.—Invitations have been received by different Drumheller labor leaders, inviting them to a Farmer-Labor convention being held at Acme in the near future for the nominating of a candidate for the District constituency in the coming election. While no concrete plan has been made, it is believed that the meeting will be held at Acme. A. B. Claypool will receive an invitation, and his nomination is significant, while the term Farmer-Labor is an indication of the fact that the farmers intend to make a serious bid for the labor vote in the Red Deer Valley portion of the District constituency.

Mr. Claypool serving quite a portion of the labor vote in the District during the last election, and no doubt is counting on his local following, representing in the same manner. With Premier Brownlee winning labor, and Lester McMillen of the Conservative party having failed his bid, so far to have appeared in a certain section of the labor vote, Mr. Claypool has been a much courted figure, besides this is something no labor leader has done in this section in many years. Then again the Farmer-Labor convention may be another way of giving the public a chance to elect a straight labor candidate in the District constituency.

THE PRESS

IT HAS PULLING POWER!

(Publisher's Auxiliary)

Another highly efficient use has been discovered for newspapers. An exchange says: "When your car gets stuck in the mud and your wheels merely spin around and your friends advise you to call for help, get a bunch of newspapers, slip them under the rear wheels, turn the gas and see the car come out of the mire. Probably the influence of the Advertisements. Many a business concern stuck in deep mire has been pulled out by Advertising."

FIFTY-FIFTY

(Edmonton Bulletin)

They told a good one in the Liberal lobby last week. C.P.A. members had been talking co-operation, and someone suggested that their ideas of co-operation and fifty-fifty were like that of the man selling rabbit pies.

The pie vendor was queried as to whether all the meat used was rabbit meat, and finally admitted that he put in a little horsemeat.

"How much horsemeat?" insisted his questioner. "On just fifty-fifty," he replied. "One horse out of fifty."

That story should go good with Mr. George Hoadley.

THE GARDEN FAN

(Valcan Advocate)

There are golf fans, football fans, and tennis fans. But the one that beats them all is the garden fan. Just get a man spending and hosing in a garden and you have lost him forever. It is the most absorbing hobby in the world. From golf, tennis, or any of the sports you cannot begin to get the sweet satisfaction that comes from a day's gardening. There is something in the soft brown loam that makes a man a philosopher. With every spade of earth he turns up, he digs a grave for his troubles. There is something in every little event around that makes a man an optimist. With every new shoot, a new hope springs up in his heart. Gardening gives quiet reflection. It soothes his soul. It puts the mind. Every man's back yard is his little Eden, the place where he can rejuvenate himself freely, any day of the year. Again, there is no question of the great influence of flowers on the nervous tendencies which accrue from the strenuousness of every day business life. Flowers are a means of pleasure and they are also a medium toward better health and more contentment. Only the man who has never realized the joy of garden and achievement in a garden of flowers will scoff at the sentiment. Many a man has been seen with a breakdown by drawing inspiration from a mere packet of seeds. The scrubbing in a garden is wonderful physical exercise, but it is also a mental stimulus which for the time crowds out all other worries. Amateurs do not know how to begin can easily receive assistance. The Horticultural Society is organized for that very purpose. Now is the time to plan to make a barren patch, prolific next summer.

Fill in a bare corner with some shrubbery, to grow vegetables from for the family table. The reward is pleasure, a certain amount of physical fitness, and a mental relaxation, which helps toward a philosophical understanding of life.

WITH THE SPRING

By Helen Coy

Let me be a little kinder,
Let me be a little blinder
To the faults of these about me;
Let me realize a little more
Let me be when I am weary
Just a little bit more cheery;
Let me serve a little better
Than that I am a string for You.

Let me be a little braver
When temptation blows me waver;
Let me strive a little harder
To be all that I should be.
Let me be a little meeker
With the dither that is weaker;
Let me think more of my neighbor
And a little less of me.

A WORRIED BARNEY

It was at a revival in a Southern church. One orthodox saint stoutly rebuffed the elder's exhortations.

"We've seen it all day, Ebenezer, 's one got a problem. Ah don't see 'em Ah's giving git mah shirt on 'em with wings when Ah ain't got 'em."

"Dat ain't yo problem," retorted the elder. "You problem is how you 'sine git 'em but on ova h y horns?"

ONE MORE YEAR TO LIVE

—O—

Recently The Baltimore Sun gave a prize of twenty-five dollars to Miss Mary Reed for her answer to the question, "What would you do if you had only one more year to live?"

Her reply was a remarkable one, but decision of a secular paper to give out of its prize to an answer that contains such noble and spiritual sentiment. It speaks well for our day that a newspaper should recognize the worth of one who feels that to live for God. We hope that the attitude of The Baltimore Sun and the answer of the young lady will do much to stir people to right living and thinking. What Mary Reed would do follows:

If I had but one year to live;
One year to help; one year to give;
One year to love; one year to bless;
One year of better things to do;
One year to sing; one year to smile;
To brighten earth a little while;
One year to sing my Maker's praise;
One year to fill with work my days;
One year to strive for a reward
When I should stand before my Lord.

I think that I would spend each day
In just the very self-same way
That I do now. For from after
The call may come to cross the bar
At any time, and I must be
Ready to meet death,
So I have a year to live,
Or just one day in which to give
A pleasant smile, a helping hand,
A mind that tries to understand
A fellow-creature when in need,
The way with me—I take no heed;
Day to live each day I end
To serve my gracious Maker's end.

CHANCE

—O—

Chance made him rich, but you cannot find
That the self-same chance has made him rich.
Rich one he struck
By a stroke of luck,
From the wheel of fortune he drew
He was rough and loud,
But luck had no charm that could make him wise.

Chance filled his purse with a golden store
But left him just as he was before.
He was rough and loud,
And his speech was proud,
He was still the man that he used to be.
For luck couldn't make him good company.

Chance couldn't give him what books contain.
It could all his purse, but not his brain.
And it seems too bad
That the luck he'd had Couldn't make him gentle, and kind and true.
But these are miracles luck can't do.

The wheel of fortune may bring you gold,
But the man of you'll be his own sort of mold.

Chance makes you rich
By a lucky pitch,
But each for himself must his knowledge learn,
And the trials worth while every man must earn.

"NOT FOR SALE"

—O—

The Denver Post of Sunday, Jan. 1st, carries a full page picture by Paul Greer pertaining to the selling of horse meat for consumption in Europe.

The picture shows a cowboy on his horse gazing on a huge sign on which are exhibited in large letters the following words:
HORSE MEAT
PACKING CO.
HORSE MEAT
FOR EUROPE

Bring in your horses
The horse breeder a weeklong expression as though its chances of life were very slim and the cowboy's sentiments are expressed in the following poem by Charles E. Lonsdale, entitled "Not for Sale":

Hold on, Jack Pot—what 'th' hell?
The son-of-a-gun that told
The man from Glasgow stepped up to an Irishman who was passing and said with a smile:

"Beorra, and that's nothing, an' I've seen the Irishman. 'When I was in Scotland I noticed that they had to take their pants off to buy the bairnies.'"

EVERYBODY LOOKED
"All right back there," called the conductor from the front of the car. "Hold on," cried a fellow voice. "Wait until I get my clothes on."

The entire carful of passengers craned their necks to look. A girl got on with a basket of laundry.

Automobiles will be radio operated and controlled, says the New York Edition. They will tune in for their "juice" from large electric-generating plants.

Airplanes will be supplied with motive power in the same way. Steam railroads will be almost unknown in a few years. They will in time become entirely electrified.

Vision by radio—motion pictures by wireless—already is an assured thing. A world in which everything is moved or propelled by electricity is coming about.

The next ten years will see even more startling developments than the last decade has witnessed.

THE LIBERAL LEADERSHIP ACCEPTED BY J. T. SHAW

The Liberal party is to be congratulated in selecting Mr. J. T. Shaw to become the Provincial Leader.

This appointment is particularly pleasing as it is but a short time since the Standard suggested to Premier Brownlee that in looking for a fit and proper person for the position of Attorney General that he should have Mr. Shaw show his samples before making a decision.

However, Mr. Brownlee did not take the Standard's advice and allowed the Liberal party to pick up a bright, keen, and clean politician, probably one of the most promising in the whole of the Dominion.

In J. T. Shaw the Liberals have a leader who will not stoop to conquer, but will win or lose in carrying on the work of the party, according to his best convictions.

He has pledged himself that while he is connected with the party, it will never be tainted with corrupt or improper conduct, and the electoral corruption must be banished.

If Premier Brownlee goes down at the next election to defeat at the hands of Mr. Shaw, he must only blame himself for not accepting a good "tip" given to him by the Standard.

INVESTIGATE THE ELECTRIC LIGHT AND POWER AGREEMENT
The Electric Light and Power agreement with the United Electric and Engineering Company, Limited, has passed the Council and been approved by the Board of Public Utilities Commission at Edmonton, and now needs the endorsement of the qualified electors in order to get quick action by the electrical Company.

It is now the duty of every elector to investigate the terms of the agreement in order to be able to cast an intelligent vote on May 7th, the day which has been decided upon by the Council on which a poll shall be held.

To Mayor Bell is to be given special credit for negotiating this contract and to Councilor Shute, who through his technical knowledge in connection with electrical conditions and customs, has been able to give no end of information to the laymen members of the Council.

Had not Mayor Bell been most persistent in his endeavor to secure from Manager Brown, of the electrical company, a promise to rebate contract, the latter would have passed Strathmore in the building of the line from Gleichen, solely because it does not make an attractive proposition to them from a financial viewpoint.

Capital, these days, when investments are easy to make with returns in sight, is very easy about investing where the returns are limited, and where development, if any, will be very slow.

This is the condition in Strathmore, and the very best that is at all probable, is a very moderate return upon the capital outlay.

The rates proposed are particularly favorable, when it is known that Strathmore is paying the same as Gleichen, and the same as High River, which has a consumption of more than three times as much as can be used here.

Strathmore has but few industries that require power, hence the main revenue has to be derived from street lighting and for domestic purposes.

One of the possibilities for Strathmore is to become a residential town, where special educational advantages might be available, which would be a great inducement to people to locate here, and doubly so if they can have the advantages of modern improvements. The first step in that direction is to secure electric light and power, and after obtaining these, sanitary convenience and a water supply should be the goal as fast as the finances of the municipality will permit.

Whether you are in favor or opposed to the franchise, make it your business to become fully informed in connection with the agreement, so that when polling day arrives you will be able to cast a vote after you have made yourself fully conversant with all the conditions of the agreement and the many benefits to be obtained therefrom.

The Standard understands that the members of the council purpose holding a public meeting in the Memorial Hall, when a free and full discussion will be possible, so do not fail to attend that meeting, and if you have questions to ask, you will find the Mayor and Councilors fully prepared to give you full and frank answers. They are working in your interests in endeavoring to secure light and power under a guarded agreement, for a limited period of ten years.

EDITORIAL NOTES

The dairy products of Alberta have increased twenty-three fold since 1905 in which year they were valued at $1,000,000, and last year exceeded $23,000,000.

The southern part of Alberta is seeding a larger area in spring wheat and oats, together with a considerable increase in fodder corn and sweet clover.

In 1905, the total agricultural products of the Province of Alberta had a total value of $20,000,000, while in 1925 exceeded two hundred and thirty million dollars.

Henry Ford has joined the Free Trade army, and says that he would be glad if the Government took all the duty off automobiles, and there are a lot of owners and possible purchasers who will agree with Henry.

If the Provincial Government can only secure the natural resources soon, they will not need to worry about balancing the budget, and Leader McIlwray will be short of that kind of ammunition.

Alberta has about 79,000 square miles of oil territory that has not yet been allocated to the companies that have been organized, hence there will be no shortage of territory for the new companies.

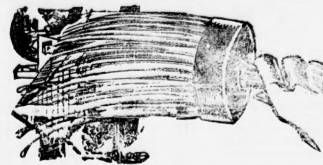

The Gleichen "Call" says the Provincial election is now in sight and the old party men are slow in moving, and that it is a foregone conclusion that John C. Buckley will again represent this constituency.

The only way the local merchants can meet mail order catalogue competition is to carry their own story by constant advertising and a cheap way to do it is through the weekly newspaper that will carry the message to the home.

The Town of Gleichen has fixed the mill rate for 1926 as follows: Municipal rate 21 1/2 mills; School rate 25 mills and Supplementary rate 2 1/2 mills. Total 100 mills, but the Strathmore council hope to get through with a much lower rate.

Calgary is not only endeavoring to monopolize all that is good in the oil fields, but they are apparently going to corner the market on Premiers. Premier Brownlee and Leaders, McIlwray, Shaw and Fred White, all arriving in the political arena from the Branches Alberta.

Former Premier Drury has been re-elected president of the Ontario Progressive Association, and will abolish 44 beer if returned at the next election. He says prohibition is the main issue before the province, not its assets or debts, but whether the democratic principles of majority rule shall prevail or not.

It is rumored that if the Conservatives held up the passage of the new income tax law and the new customs regulations, that the King Government will appeal to the people through a general election. This is all moonshine, as neither King or Neighen are anxious for another contest at the present stage of the game.

Former Premier Drury, of Ontario, claims that the Ferguson Government leads the way in law breaking. There is a provincial law compelling holding elections within three months of a vacancy. There are seven vacancies in Ontario, and the law is being ignored. Mr. Drury should have a heart-to-heart talk with Premier Brownlee, who is carrying on under much the same plan of evasion as Premier Ferguson.

Last week we advertised a stray white Berkshire sow for W. Jenkins.
This should have read Yorkshire. Bill indignantly wanted to know if we ever saw a white Berkshire and the editor had reluctantly admitted that his only knowledge of the porcine family had been gained by seeing them as ham and bacon. We mean, of course, the

Thursday—They was a lady here to
